Dear Sir/Madam,

DP Consulting (Disability Equality Services) Ltd is pleased to announce a new Workshop on the implications of the Equality Act 2010.

This event will help you understand the key provisions of the new act, the implication for you as an employer, and how to remain legally compliant by ensuring that you review any existing policies and procedures.

The Equality Act came into force early October 2010 and seeks to consolidate and clarify the existing discrimination legislation regarding age, gender, race, disability, sexual orientation, religion or belief, with a single approach where appropriate. All organisations will be required to promote equality and avoid discrimination in the workplace.

Places on our events are strictly limited as they are highly interactive working sessions which will examine all relevant aspects of the new Act and give practical guidance on the government's new legislation.

Our next event will take place on Tuesday 25th January 2011.

Attendance to only one session is required for full training as outlined above and pricing is £175 per person.

To book your place or for further enquiries email:

Venue: DP Consulting (Disability Equality Services) Ltd

Unit 4, Tygan House,

The Broadway, Cheam, Surrey SM3 8AY

DP Consulting is a leader in the provision of Disability Equality Services and comprehensive solutions to Equality Training.

Our Unique Selling Point is that all of our consultants are disabled professionals so they have a heightened awareness of the barriers to inclusion faced by disabled people in society.

As a company principle we follow the Social Model of Disability and strive to allow all disabled people to be fully included, to participate in mainstream activities and to maintain equality throughout life's journey - from childcare, education and employment to accessing goods and services, etc.
